Conditions of enrolment

1. Tuition fees, enrolment fee and Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) will be invoiced at the time of offer. Payment cannot be accepted prior to an offer. Invoices are to be paid at least four weeks prior to commencement date of the course. Payment details are listed in the next column.
2. On receiving your Acceptance and Refund Policy form, invoiced fees and any outstanding documents, the University issues a receipt and electronic Confirmation of Enrolment (eCoE) letter. You need to have the eCoE to apply for a student visa.
3. For student visas, when selecting a commencement date, please allow at least six weeks for visa processing.
4. The University must be notified in writing of any changes to enrolment.
5. The University reserves the right to change its fees and conditions at any time.
6. Fees in subsequent years must be paid to the Fees Office at least two weeks prior to the commencement of the semester. Non payment of fees may result in the cancellation of your student visa.
7. International students are advised to complete their course within the specified duration, and must inform the University of any change of address within seven days of such change.

Privacy Declaration:

The information provided in this form will only be used for the administrative or educational purposes of the University, or in accordance with your specific consent. The University will not disclose your personal information to a third party unless required to or permitted by law or where you have consented to the disclosure. Information relating to how the University collects, uses or discloses your personal information and how you may complain about the University's handling of your personal information is contained in the University's Privacy Policy at www.nd.edu.au/privacypolicy. The University may disclose your personal information to the Australian Government or to other authorised agencies if required to do so under legislation. You have a right to access your personal information that the University holds about you and to seek its correction. If you wish to access your personal information or inquire about the handling of your personal information, please contact the relevant Campus Registrar via email:

General information

Enrolment and Orientation

All new students are required to attend Enrolment and Orientation sessions, held during the week prior to the commencement of each semester. Final details will be provided to new students closer to the semester commencement date.

Refund Policy for International Students

All requests for a refund should be submitted in writing (with supporting documentation) to the Manager of the Fees Office.

A notice of withdrawal due to:

- Illness or disability;
- Death of a close family member (parent, sibling, spouse, child); or political or civil event which prevents acquittal, may be accepted as grounds for partial refund of fees. Supporting documentary evidence must be provided.

In all cases:

- Refunds of tuition and accommodation fees will be in accordance with any State authorities and the Commonwealth's Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000. Information on the ESOS framework is available to students on request or at <https://internationaleducation.gov.au/regulatory-information/pages/regulatoryinformation.aspx>.
- The University will give the student a statement explaining how the refund amount has been calculated.
- In all cases where the student is in default, the refund (if any) will be paid within four weeks after receiving a written claim from the student.

This agreement does not remove the right to take further action under Australia's consumer protection laws. In the case of any disputes, The University of Notre Dame Australia's Dispute Resolution processes do not circumscribe the student's right to pursue other legal remedies. NOTE: further details on the Refund Policy are available on page 27.

Medical insurance: Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC)

It is a requirement of the Department of Immigration and Border Protection that holders of student visas have OSHC. For newly arrived students, this cover is arranged by the University as part of the admissions process and fees payable are included in your invoice. Full information, including how to claim refund of medical expenses from the health cover provider, is provided during Orientation by OSHC Bupa Advantage, the University's OSHC provider.
